Webinar – On-Demand Web Link

Liabilities & Responsibilities of New & Experienced Directors

Wednesday, September 15, 2021

2 - 3:30 p.m.

As a new or seasoned director, it is imperative to understand the breadth and depth of your responsibilities and liabilities. Today's directors require strong banking and regulatory knowledge to make informed decisions. The more knowledgeable you are, the better you can fulfill your role. This session is designed to provide directors with a solid foundation of the key requirements of banking. Presented in lay terms, you learn directors' responsibilities from the perspectives of safety, soundness, risk management and regulatory compliance. This webinar provides a valuable update for experienced directors.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Understand the basics of the CAMELS rating
- Identify the risk management components to directors' decisions
- Explain regulators' expectations for your compliance management system
- Assimilate how your role as a director fits with the board's composition and committees, including the attendant individual responsibilities and liabilities
- Be aware of new challenges facing the banking industry

TAKE-AWAY TOOLKIT

- Risk management chart indicating required components
- Cheat sheet of compliance regulations
- List of acronyms to help learn industry language/lingo
- Employee training log
- Interactive quiz
