CBAI Leadership Bankers and Staff Meet with Federal Reserve Vice Chair Miki Bowman

On October 5, 2026, CBAI community bankers and senior staff met with Federal Reserve Vice Chair for Supervision, Miki Bowman, at the St. Louis Federal Reserve ahead of its annual Community Bank Research Conference. Attending the meeting were CBAI leadership bankers Misty Borrowman, Constitution Bank; Mary Jo Homan, First National Bank in Pinckneyville; and Jason Semple, Dieterich Bank, Effingham; and CBAI SVP of Governmental Relations, Jerry Peck.

The meeting covered a wide range of topics including indexing regulatory thresholds, plain language in MRAs, revisions to Reg CC, updating SARs and CTRs, and CECL. Check fraud and a regulatory response to the Request for Information on payments/check fraud were also discussed, as well as the risks posed by AI in financial fraud and the increasing use of digital assets and stablecoins.

The CBAI community bankers and senior staff appreciated this opportunity to meet with Vice Chair Bowman and look forward to continued engagement with her on important issues for Illinois community banks.
